Professor A. B. F. Lefroy,
Toronto.

Dear Professor Lefroy:

I have just received your letter and have consulted with Professor Mavor about it and one that I got from Professor McGregor Young. Doubtless Professor Mavor will see you soon, and I shall be glad to see Professor Young and yourself in a day or two when we can arrange a convenient time.

Yours sincerely,

President.

Professor Lefroy,

Toronto.

Dear Professor Lefroy:

I agree with you in your understanding of the arrangement that your lectures are to be not only in Federal Constitutional law but also in English and Canadian Constitutional Law. I will write to the Bursar and have him correct the announcement so as to include the other two subjects.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Professor A. H. E. LeRoy,

Toronto.

Dear Professor LeRoy:

I have your application for the position in International Law from which Professor McGregor Young has resigned. When I take up the matter of arrangements for next session, in a month or two, I will be glad to look into the matter as fully as possible.

Yours sincerely,

President.

April 21st, 1915

Professor A. H. M. Lefroy,
Toronto.

Dear Professor Lefroy:

I have spoken to Professor Waver about your application to take over International law in place of Professor McGregor Young. I am afraid that I can hardly promise to accede to your wishes in this matter inasmuch as it has been practically decided some time ago that we should offer the position to Mr. J.D. Falconbridge, and I understand that he has been making preparations for the work. In any case it would be an advantage for us to have two dealing with these kindred law subjects instead of having the whole work undertaken by the one.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
